

Teria Thornton, J.D., AFC® The Navigator

With years of experience in student financial counseling and being a former law student herself, Teria can help direct students to the best route for their desired financial destinations. Often there are roadblocks, wrong turns, or confusing street signs on the road to financial success. Teria can help you recalculate or simply give you directions for the fastest route to where you ultimately wish to be.

About Teria:

Teria has nearly ten years' experience working in the higher education field. Her involvement includes positions in financial aid, training, and enrollment services. She firmly believes that "education is the great equalizer." Teria promotes that knowledge makes goals achievable and success attainable.

J.D. University of Cincinnati College of Law
M.A. Public Policy and Management, The Ohio State University
B.A. Political Science, Fisk University

Teria's Financial Tip:

Be creative in cutting costs and saving. Find free local events, use online marketplaces, do a change-saving challenge. Small gains or savings now can lead to big gains and savings in the future.