"It was great talking with [my AccessLex coach] today. You were a great help and I truly appreciate your time and insight, as well as everything you shared from your own story. The level of engagement you were able to provide was truly unique. I will recommend AccessLex [MAX] pre-law resources to any potential law student who comes to me down the line."

"I appreciate the different ways MAX Pre-Law presents information — webinars, self-guided lessons, short videos, downloadable worksheets, infographics, and more. It really considers the varied ways people learn. This is very well done, and I can see it rapidly becoming one of the go-to tools for pre-law advisors."
