"My AccessConnex counselor was amazing! Very complete explanations of my options and she understood my special economic situation. I was overwhelmed by my finances and she gave me the answers I needed. I am feeling much better now. Thank you so much."

- Suffolk University Law Student

"This is an amazing organization. I hope more people learn about it in order to tackle their student loans. I appreciate the availability of the representatives and being able to talk to a human being! Thanks so much."

- Boston University Medical Student

"Katrina was my AccessConnex counselor and she did a great job walking me through the different plans and options as well as explaining the strategy behind choosing each one. I feel SO relieved after speaking with her and feel ready to make a decision on my repayment plan and tackle my loans. Thank you so much!"

- Stetson University Law Student

"I have already recommended this service. Thank you for being there as a nonprofit!"
