AccessLex Grants

Thank you for your interest in AccessLex Institute's grant programs. You are beginning an application for the Bar Success Intervention Grant Program. Before submitting an application for consideration, click here and please read the grant program's frequently asked questions (FAQs) carefully.

Scope of Grant Program

The Bar Success Intervention Grant Program provides funding to programs and interventions aimed at helping increase bar exam passage rates among populations most at-risk of not passing on the first or subsequent attempts. The central goal of the Bar Success Intervention Grant Program is to increase the knowledge base about effective bar exam success programming that is scalable and replicable.

To be fundable, programs must:

- Have a duration of 12-24 months and seek funding in the amount of $150,000-$300,000
- Focus on law students and graduates most at risk of not passing the bar exam and/or institutions with ultimate bar examination passage rates that fall below 70%
- Include clear statements of program goals and tangible and measurable objectives
 - Should be premised on increasing students'/graduates' chances of passing the bar exam
 - Program components must be aligned with goals and objectives
- Include an evaluation plan
 - Must be tied directly to goals, objectives, and expected outcomes
 - Must be designed using valid data collection and analytical techniques
 - Must include methods for tracking participants up to some endpoint that may transcend the program interventions (e.g., the receipt of bar exam results)
 - Must include methods for documenting relevant outcomes (e.g., bar exam results)

Programs that also encompass the following optional elements will be given preference in the selection process:

- Differential treatment of participants (treatment/control group methodology) for purposes of program evaluation
 - The LOI should include descriptions of the different treatment groups; how participants will be assigned; and how the framework would aid evaluation.
- Relevant long-term support for participants
- Collaboration with other institutions, organizations, etc.

Scope of LOI Form

The LOI form is designed to elicit brief information about your program and your proposal. You may find the character limits restrictive. These limits may require you to make strategic decisions about what information to include and what to exclude. The information provided should focus on components of the program for which grant funds are being sought, though contextual information about other components should be provided to the extent necessary and possible.

All fields on the LOI form require a response. Given the competitive nature of the process, not every LOI applicant will be invited to submit a full grant proposal. Proposals featuring all the required elements above and at least some of the optional elements are most likely to be invited.

To view and print the full list of the questions and prompts on this form, click the "Question List" button above. If you have questions about this grant application process, please direct them to grants@accesslex.org with the phrase, "Question – LOI," in the subject line.

To ensure that you receive emails sent from Foundant, our grant interface program, please add administrator@grantinterface.com to your email safe senders list, address book or contacts. Please note, all questions should be directed to grants@accesslex.org.

To the extent applicants include non-Helix programs and materials as part of research design, applicants are advised to (1) utilize comparable Helix offerings – which will be provided on an in-kind (non-cash) basis, or (2) seek alternate funding for research components requiring use of non-Helix programs or materials.
- More information about Helix is available here: <https://www.helixbarreview.org/>. Please direct any specific questions regarding this to grants@accesslex.org.
