

AccessConnex by AccessLexSM

A FREE STUDENT LOAN HELPLINE

- Free financial education resources from a nonprofit you can trust.

Speak to an Accredited Financial Counselor® for FREE.

- AccessConnex provides one-on-one financial and loan repayment coaching to current students and graduates.

Do you have questions about money? Need help understanding scholarships, grants, or the financial aid process? Want to speak with someone about your student loan repayment options? Our team of Accredited Financial Counselors will answer your questions and help you feel confident about your next steps.

Personal.
Confidential.
Free.

Scan the QR code to schedule an appointment.

AccessLex.org/AccessConnex

Feel Confident About Your Financial Strategy.

"My AccessConnex coaching session was very informative, insightful, and encouraging. I am looking forward to my law school experience and feel better equipped to do so."

– Graduating Senior, Morgan State University

"This is an amazing organization. I hope more people learn about it in order to tackle their student loans. I appreciate the availability of the representatives and being able to talk to a human being! Thanks so much."

– Boston University Medical Student

"This was my first counseling call with AccessConnex and I could not be more pleased or grateful. My counselor provided me with detailed and clear answers and information, all of which was tailored to my specific circumstances. She was a pleasure to speak to and I would definitely recommend this service to others. Thank you!"

– Harvard University Law Student

"My AccessConnex counselor was very helpful and knowledgeable. She knew which programs would be the best fit for my needs and was able to link me to the forms I needed to fill out. I would definitely recommend this service to others!"

– St. Thomas University School of Law Student

